1. The Buyer as used herein shall mean and include the undersigned, individually, and entity as an employee, partner, stockholder, officer, director, agent, adviser, consultants, manager, member or any other capacity whatsoever. The Information as used herein shall include all verbal and written data, reports, records, or materials obtained from the Broker or the Seller.

2. Buyer will not disclose any of the Information to any party other than persons within Buyer's organization, or independent advisers, who have a need to know such Information for the purpose of evaluating the possible purchase of the Business. Buyer agrees to be responsible for the compliance of these other parties with all provisions of this agreement. If Buyer decides not to pursue the proposed acquisition, Buyer will advise Broker of this fact and return to Broker all Information furnished to Buyer without keeping copies of it.

3. Buyer agrees to keep confidential that the Business is for sale, or listed for sale, or that any discussions are taking place concerning a possible sale of the Business. 4. The Information furnished, and to be furnished, is provided by Seller, or based on representations of the Seller, and Broker has made no investigation of it. Buyer accepts sole and final responsibility for the evaluation of the Information and all other factors relating to the Business.

5. Buyer acknowledges and understands that the Broker is acting as the agent of the Seller and that Broker's primary duty is to represent the interests of the Seller. Buyer will present all offers for the business through Broker and conduct all negotiations on any proposed transaction through Broker. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the state of the principal place of business for the Business. If any part of this Agreement is held to be unenforceable, the remaining portions of this Agreement shall be deemed to be valid and in full force and effect.

8. Buyer will not, for a period of three (3) years from the date hereof, enter into any agreement for the purchase of the Business, in whole or in part, or assist or promote any other party in so doing, unless such agreement to purchase provides for commission to be paid Broker, with the commission being defined as the amount agreed upon by Broker and Seller in the "Standard Listing Agreement" or similar agreement between those parties. The phrase "agreement for the purchase of the Business "as used herein, shall mean and include any agreement, specifically including, but not limited to, offers to purchase, letters of intent and similar agreements, that provides for the transfer, conveyance, possession of, or disposition of the Business, its capital stock, assets, or any portion thereof, and the commission amount to be paid Broker shall be the greater of either the minimum commission or the commission based upon sale price (or purchase price), as these amounts are defined in the afore said agreement between Broker and Seller. The commission amount agreed upon by Broker and Seller in the afore said agreement between those parties will be made known to Buyer by Broker, upon Buyer's request, when and if an agreement for the purchase of the Business is made by Buyer. If Buyer violates the foregoing provision, Buyer will be liable for and pay said commission to Broker upon demand without any obligation on Broker's part to first exhaust any legal remedies against Seller. Buyer acknowledges that buying a business, any business, is a risk for the Buyer. Capital can be lost. Due diligence must be careful and complete on the part of the Buyer. Even then, not all facts will be uncovered.
